This memoir is the story of my childhood and teen years. It begins when I was very young with my parents' divorce, then goes on to living with a spiteful and unloving stepmother, World War II, my father being wounded, the fear of the approaching Russian front, our fleeing from them and bombings. After the end of war, as we tried to make our way back home, I was terrified of the Russian soldiers and war prisoners who roamed our countryside. I feared my father would be shot or imprisoned. I listened to women screaming for help while being raped. I endured the sorrow of losing my beloved father, followed by living with my stepmother's cruelty. My agony ended with the happy reunion with my real mother, my sister, Oma my loving grandmother, and family. After WWII ended, my family and I lived behind the "Iron Curtain" in East Germany under the Russian occupation Stalin's "Iron Fist." His communist regime imposed such strict isolation and extreme hunger on us that in June of 1953 the citizens of East Germany waged an unsuccessful uprising to gain freedom from Russia and communism. Finally, in the fall of 1953, when I was eighteen, we escaped to West Germany. These are the memories of my childhood and teen years.

The story you are about to read is about a young girl named SALEENAH who has everything a girl could possibly want or need, born in a family who has it ALL and parents who have their own law firm, the best in their town. Saleenah's parents have set up for her, in the event of their death, to inherit the estate. Saleenah's father also sets up for her to temporarily go to a girls shelter to show her that things don't always come on a silver platter. One day in an instant everything is turned upside down when a storm hits the family's Victorian home and the people dear to Saleenah are taken away forever. How will Saleenah cope? What will happen to Saleenah now? What will her future be? This story takes on a special meaning today, that life can be turned upside down in an instant. Showing the importance of families and that we can come out on top. I hope this story reaches the heart of those who read it.

Control operations. Create an administrative interface to oversee your site.

Afrikan life into the coming millennia is imperiled by White and Asian power. True power must nest in the ownership of the real estate wherever Afrikan people dwell. Economic destiny determines biological destiny. 'Blueprint for Black Power' details a master plan for the power revolution necessary for Black survival in the 21st century. White treatment of Afrikan

Americans, despite a myriad of theories explaining White behavior, ultimately rests on the fact that they can. They possess the power to do so. Such a power differential must be neutralized if Blacks are to prosper in the 21st century ... Aptly titled, 'Blueprint for Black Power' stops not at critique but prescribes radical, practical theories, frameworks and approaches for true power. It gives a biting look into Black potentiality.
