Marked by power follows Kenzie, a seemingly ordinary girl who just wants to get through the next 3 years and get back to her plans. Life, however, has other plans for Kenzie. Whilst most people are blessed with anywhere between 1-7 marks, 8/9/10/11 marks are rare because the more marks you have, the easier it is to go off the deep end...Kenzie got 12.

Marked By Power is the brilliant collaboration of Cece Rose and also G Bailey. I admit that these are two of my preferred writers, so I expected absolutely nothing short of the excellence that this publication is. The globe structure as well as tale development have true deepness. The personalities are fantastic.

When she is unexpectedly given twelve marks and becomes one of the most powerful among the Marked, you just know there are going to be problems that arise. East, Locke, Logan, Enzo and Mr Daniels certainly add intrigue and candour to the story line as their relationships develop.

Marked by Power is a fantastic start to a new series. A collaboration by two talented authors that flows seamlessly and without fault. I really enjoyed this story, the main character was likeable as were her love interests and the supporting characters. The story built really well with twists and turns and ended in a bit of a cliffhanger.

Is being marked with just one of the powers enough? Is being marked with six? What about being marked with all twelve? When Mackenzie's seventeenth birthday comes around, she planned to spend a few years at the school for the marked learning about her new powers, and then leaving and living her life. But nothing goes as planned when she attends the marking ceremony and all twelve marks appear. Kenzie lives in a world where being marked with six powers is normal, being marked with seven or more is rare. But being marked with twelve? Well, that's unheard of. With learning about her new powers, the last thing Kenzie needs to worry about is falling for her hot teacher. Not to mention the unneeded distractions of the sexy twins, the jerk in all her classes, and her older brother's best friend who finally seems to notice her. Romance and marked powers are never a good mix, not when there are people who desire her for more than her heart. Kenzie may not know, understand or want her twelfth power, but someone does. This is a reverse-harem series.

Enter the dark, magical world of the House of Night series by bestselling authors P.C. Cast and Kristin Cast, a world very much like our own, except here vampyres have always existed. One minute, sixteen-year-old Zoey Redbird is a normal teenager dealing with everyday high school stress: her cute boyfriend Heath, the school's star quarterback who suddenly seems more interested in partying than playing ball; her nosy frenemy Kayla, who's way too concerned with how things are going with Heath; her uber-tough geometry test tomorrow. The next, she's Marked as a fledgling vampyre, forcing her to leave her ordinary life behind and join the House of Night, a boarding school where she will train to become an adult vampyre. That is, if she makes it through the Change—and not all of those who are Marked do. It sucks to begin a new life, especially away from her friends, and on top of that, Zoey is no average fledgling. She has been chosen as special by the vampyre Goddess, Nyx. Zoey discovers she has amazing powers, but along with her powers come bloodlust and an unfortunate ability to Imprint with Heath, who just doesn't know how to take "no" for an answer. To add to her stress, she is not the only fledgling at the House of Night with special powers: when she discovers that the leader of the Dark Daughters, the school's most elite group, is misusing her Goddess-given gifts, Zoey must look deep within herself for the courage to embrace her destiny—with a little help from her new vampyre friends.
