perfect gift for grandmothers by pairing her signature art with quotes, poems, and short narratives honoring grandmothers of all ages. A sampling of passages includes: * "A grandmother pretends she doesn't know who you are on Halloween." -Erma Bombeck * "When grandparents enter the door, discipline flies out the window." --Ogden Nash

America's most celebrated illustrator couples her many maternal illustrations with special passages from, about, and devoted to moms in this touching and inspiring collection. In the pages of Words for Mothers to Live By, there's something special for every type of mother: new mothers, seasoned mothers, famous and not-so-famous mothers, and even grandmothers. This beautifully produced gift book is the type of inspirational keepsake you'll want to buy for the most important woman in your life. This is the perfect all-occasion gift for any mother. Mary's insights into motherhood cover all ages and stages. Here you will find Abraham Lincoln's famous saying "All that I am or hope to be I owe to my mother," as well as the tender touches of a new mother gazing into the adoring eyes of her newborn child. Mary Engelbreit captures those magic moments and celebrates, encourages, and honors mothers in this wonderful keepsake book.

In the fourth installment of Words to Live By series, Mary Engelbreit turns her attention to teachers-those who teach inside the classroom and out. The result is sure to win high marks from educators and the rest of her fans. Strong memories of her own early school days coupled with a deep respect for the work teachers do every day has made teaches (and school children too, of course) frequent subjects of Mary's artwork. "I guess it's my little way of showing appreciation for a severely under-appreciated group," she says. As in the other Words to Live By books, Mary's artwork is presented alongside inspirational quotes from famous writers, scholars, statesmen, and students-this time with words that pay tribute to the
