In this OET Writing article, we will share how you can get a high score on this sub-test. The OET Writing sub-test is unlike any other writing test. In the IELTS and the PTE, you have to write an ' essay '. You are given a prompt and you write according to your thoughts. In the OET, you do not write according to your thoughts. In fact, there is very little room for creativity at all.

The structure of the OET Writing sub-test was not randomly chosen. Like the other sub-tests, it is meant to cover the assessment criteria for all candidates and decide on the level of occupational English. Test takers will be assessed with regard to the overall task fulfillment, the appropriate usage of language and stimulus comprehension.

OET Writing Sub-Test / Structure - All You Need To Know

On 31 st August 2019, a new assessment criteria was implemented for the OET Writing sub-test. Don ' t worry, there are NO changes to the case notes in this section – the writing task stayed the SAME (you will still get case notes and will have to write a formal referral, transfer or discharge letter). There are also NO changes to the time or the level of difficulty of the task.

The Occupational English Test (OET) is the exam of choice for healthcare professionals seeking to expand their career globally. Covering each sub-test individually, this book provides information that all candidates should know about the test structure, exercises and tutorials in relevant language skills, how to prepare, and how to pass. There are also four complete practice tests, each of which includes all of the four sub-tests in the OET (writing, reading, listening and speaking). The writing practice tests include examples of high-scoring answers. The listening test audio is prepared using instructions from the real exam, and can be accessed using the YouTube link provided in the book. The reading tests include explanations for each correct answer, and reasoning for why other options are incorrect. This is a comprehensive and easy-to-understand guide to passing the OET, put together by Anna Hartford based on her years of experience in helping students to pass the exam and begin working in their healthcare profession. About the author: Anna Hartford is an Australian OET teacher who has spent many years preparing candidates for the Occupational English Test. She has used her extensive knowledge of the OET to establish Progressive Coaching, a business specializing in helping healthcare professionals begin their career in Australia. NB: The reading sub-tests provided in this book are the same as those published in the OET Preparation Books by Anna Hartford.
