Dating To Relating is a complete guide for men. You will learn how to meet women, attract women, pick-up women, seduce women, establish a relationship, relate to women and marry women. Dating to Relating is not a simple "Numbers Game" strategy that tells you to go out and do something over and over again that you are totally uncomfortable with. Instead it gives you a number of situational strategies that you can use immediately for different personality types and different situations. It also gives you a dating technology which teaches you how to develop your own "dating strategy" unique to you, your personality, the personality of the women you are interested in and other situational variables. There is nothing else like Dating To Relating on the market. Nowhere else will you find a book that will take you all the way from meeting women to marrying them, and nowhere else will you find a book with both dating and relationship strategies and dating and relationship technologies.

This anthology contains excerpts from some thirty-two important 17th and 18th century moral philosophers. Including a substantial introduction and extensive bibliographies, the anthology facilitates the study and teaching of early modern moral philosophy in its crucial formative period. As well as well-known thinkers such as Hobbes, Hume, and Kant, there are excerpts from a wide range of philosophers never previously assembled in one text, such as Grotius, Pufendorf, Nicole, Clarke, Leibniz, Malebranche, Holbach and Paley.
