The core story revolves around a young woman named Grace Bennett. When we first meet her ... She takes up his suggestion and begins a love affair with books and a close relationship with him.

It's hard to be Nate Becker in a Bennett world. But we've always considered ourselves family. I travel the world as a TV producer, never able to spend much time with them. Which might be a good thing. Because my best friend's little sister has never felt like that to me. That sexy little spitfire has always caught my attention. If I don't stick around too long, Sebastian will never notice the way I look at her. But Alice Bennett has other plans. Her new restaurant would be a perfect feature on one of my network's shows. It's almost too easy to set up meetings with her. Invent excuses to need more information. To boss her around the way she seems to like. It's harmless, I tell myself. I'm moving to London in three weeks, I tell myself. I'm not going to upset Sebastian, I tell myself. Famous last words. I can't cross the line with her. We can't jeopardize the family relationships. But between stolen kisses and wicked-hot nights, it's spinning out of our control. When the chance of a lifetime comes knocking at my door, it's time to decide what has more allure-my career, or a chance with her?

Alice Bennett has been holding a torch for her older brother's best friend, Nate, for more than a decade. He's a hotshot TV producer who travels the world, never staying in San Francisco for too long. But now he's in town and just as tempting as ever... with a bossy streak that makes her weak in the knees and a smile that melts her defenses.As a successful restaurant owner, Alice is happy with her life. She loves her business and her family, yet after watching her siblings find their happy ever after, she can't help feeling lonely sometimes-but that's only for her to know.Nate Becker has always had a soft spot for Alice. Despite considering the Bennetts his family, he never could look at her as just his friend's little sister. She's a spitfire, and Nate just can't stay away. He loves making her laugh... and blush.Their attraction is irresistible, and between stolen kisses and wicked-hot nights, they form a deep bond that has them both yearning for more.But when the chance of a lifetime comes knocking at his door, will Nate chase success even if it means losing Alice, or will he choose her?

The best part about being Christopher Bennett is that no one ever really says no to me. I'm persuasive. I'm witty. And boy, do I know how to turn on the charm. If only I could turn my family's attempts at persuasion off. Their meddling is out of control. No one asked them to matchmake. Certainly not me. And certainly not with an interior decorator raising her younger siblings. Then Victoria Hensley turns out to be more than just a decorator. Her laughter is contagious. Her beautiful lips and curves are beyond tempting. Sparks are flying between us, to my dismay and my family's delight. Next thing I know, I'm training her brother in soccer and reading bedtime stories to her sister. Who am I? Turns out I can't say no to Victoria. And I refuse to let her say no to me. I know I'm a client, that I'm technically off-limits. But doesn't that make it all the more exciting? I'm determined to see this thing through to the end. And I won't settle for anything less than a happily-ever-after.

I know what people think when they hear the name Sebastian Bennett. Determined. Ruthless. Head of a business empire. From the outside, I look bulletproof. Behind closed doors, though, family always comes first. My parents. My eight-yes, eight-siblings. Every single one of them nagging at me to settle down and get married. I may be bulletproof, but I can't seem to deflect them. No matter how many times I patiently explain that I don't believe in love. I hadn't counted on Ava Lindot. Beautiful. Funny. Just as stubborn as I am. It's frankly infuriating. I only hired her as a consultant to make our next jewelry collection launch unforgettable. So why is it thoughts of her that I can't shake? Those curves, that smile... it's irresistible. And completely off-limits. She won't risk her job. I won't risk my heart. But one kiss, one touch at a time, our sizzling chemistry is turning into a deep connection. With her time at Bennett Enterprises drawing to a close, I'll have to decide what I was wrong about-her, or love.

They say Blake Bennett is downright irresistible. They're mostly right. I've never had to work too hard to fill my bed. One smile is usually all it takes. I like it like that. With the men of my family dropping like flies into true love and marriage, it's nice to know one of us can still maintain the famous Bennett bachelor lifestyle. Even if they are starting to pressure me to join them. So how has Clara Abernathy managed to resist all my charms? Her sweetness and sass are a lethal combination, and I'm dying for just one taste. Our family has treated her like one of our own for years. After spending her life in group homes, we've given her a place to belong. And after she needs a place to stay, I offer her a literal home next door to me. Yeah, maybe hooking up with me would be crossing a line. Just a little. I know family friends are off-limits. She has professional conflicts on top of it. But she's filling a hole in me I didn't even know I had. Soon I have this bizarre compulsion to make her this happy too. I've always liked bending the rules, but will this be the one that finally breaks me?

This year, Christmas is just a reminder of the deadline looming ahead. Saving my legacy-the department store my parents build-is my top priority. At least until I find my branding manager singing and dancing while hanging twinkling lights in the meeting room. I can't get the sexy sway of her hips out of my mind.or her determination to make me smile. When I ask her to stay overtime, work isn't the only thing on my mind. Before long, I'm willing to do anything for one more kiss, one more night together. But with my future up in the air, can I promise Sienna anything more than an unforgettable Christmas season?

I know what people say about me. Eric Callahan, "The Shark". I own it. I'm a powerful man. My sharp business sense earned me that nickname. My façade is my armor. Underneath is where I keep the devotion I have for my daughter. Since her mother died, I've devoted my life to her. Expanding my business on the West Coast is one way to ensure I build the legacy she deserves. And that's all I plan to do for our three months in San Francisco. Until I meet Pippa Bennett. I swear, I didn't mean to start flirting with her. It was a complete accident. So was continuing. I can't resist the pull between us any more than I can change the tides in the Bay. We have the same sense of humor, we have chemistry for days, and she's as kind and sweet with my daughter as my family is. This is fast spiraling out of control. She's a divorcee, I'm a widower. Neither of us was prepared to take a chance on love again. Besides, we always had a time limit. But as it grows closer, I can't help but wonder-can I let her go, or could this one be forever?

No one thinks "regrets" when they hear Daniel Bennett, but I have one big one. Ten years ago, I let go of the woman I loved. But I never stopped loving her. Not that I'd ever admit that out loud. No one wants to buy an adventure package from a guy who's still pining for the one that got away. But since when has anyone ever successfully kept a secret from my family? My sisters naturally see a golden opportunity to matchmake. And as long as it's with Caroline Dunne, I'll play along. I built my business out of opportunities-I know full well one like this doesn't come along often. Our lives might be going in separate directions, but hasn't that been the case for ten years? The pull between us hasn't changed one bit. She won't let herself fall for me again. I won't let her get away a second time. If it takes everything I have, that's what I'll give. If I've learned anything, it's that when you've found your one true love, you can't give up. But can I convince her to give me a second chance?

I can already see the headlines: "Alexander Westbrook Buries Sorrows In Charity Work." No thanks. I don't want to be another one of those Hollywood actors, all PR and no heart. For me, giving back is the best part of fame, and to use my trip to the group home to get good press would taint that. Besides, my sister's been bugging me nonstop to find something-or someone-to distract me from the failed engagement to my former co-star. Enter Summer Bennett, volunteer at St Anne's and certified believer in happy endings. Spending time with her out of the spotlight is a sweet relief from my typical tabloid-ready life back in Los Angeles. The idea of spending the next two weeks with her is too good to turn down. Her entire body responds to a simple smile from me, and mine is helpless to resist her either. I can't risk my career for a girl. My studio contract doesn't allow it anyways. But I can't keep my hands to myself. Our secret kisses and whispered conversations have sparked a fire we're powerless to extinguish. How can I possibly turn our two weeks into something endless?
