Would life be better without alcohol? It 's the nagging question more and more of us are finding harder to ignore, whether we have a “ problem ” with alcohol or not. After all, we yoga. We green juice. We meditate. We self-care. And yet, come the end of a long work day, the start of a weekend, an awkward social situation, we drink. One glass of wine turns into two turns into a bottle. In the face of how we care for ourselves otherwise, it 's hard to avoid how alcohol really makes us feel... terrible. How different would our lives be if we stopped drinking on autopilot? If we stopped drinking altogether? Really different, it turns out. Really better. Frank, funny, and always judgment free, Sober Curious is a bold guide to choosing to live hangover-free, from Ruby Warrington, one of the leading voices of the new sobriety movement. Drawing on research, expert interviews, and personal narrative, Sober Curious is a radical take down of the myths that keep so many of us drinking. Chicago has been called by many names. Nelson Algren declared it a “ City on the Make. ” Carl Sandburg dubbed it the “ City of Big Shoulders. ” Upton Sinclair christened it “ The Jungle, ” while New Yorkers, naturally, pronounced it “ the Second City. ” At last there is a book for all of us, whatever we choose to call Chicago. In this magisterial biography, historian Dominic Pacygatraces the storied past of his hometown, from the explorations of Joliet and Marquette in 1673 to the new wave of urban pioneers today. The city 's great industrialists, reformers, and politicians—and, indeed, the many not-so-great and downright notorious—animate this book, from Al Capone and Jane Addams to Mayor Richard J. Daley and President Barack Obama. But what distinguishes this book from the many others on the subject is its author 's uncommon ability to illuminate the lives of Chicago 's ordinary people. Raised on the city 's South Side and employed for a time in the stockyards, Pacyga gives voice to the city 's steelyard workers and kill floor operators, and maps the neighborhoods distinguished not by Louis Sullivan masterworks, but by bungalows and corner taverns. Filled with the city 's one-of-a-kind characters and all of its defining moments, Chicago: A Biography is as big and boisterous as its namesake—and as ambitious as the men and women who built it.

Summer begins with Mary Kay Andrews, in this delightful summer read about flipping houses, and finding true love. "Andrews (The Newcomer) sparkles in this fast-paced tale. Andrews 's fans will eat this up." —Publishers Weekly "A fun story with twists and turns that will appeal to romantics and cold-case fans alike." —Kirkus Hattie Kavanaugh went to work restoring homes for Kavanaugh & Son Restorations at eighteen, married the boss 's son at twenty, and became a widow at twenty-five. Now, she 's passionate about her work, but that 's the only passion in her life. “ Never love something that can 't love you back, ” is advice her father-in-law gives her, but Hattie doesn 't follow it and falls head-over-heels for a money pit of a house. She 's determined to make it work, but disaster after disaster occurs, and Hattie 's dream might cost Kavanaugh & Son their livelihood. Hattie needs money, and fast. When a slick Hollywood producer shows up in her hometown of Savannah, Georgia, she gets a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity: star in a beach house renovation reality show called The Homewreckers, cast against a male lead who may be a love interest, or may be the ultimate antagonist. Soon, there 's more at stake than bad pipes and dry rot: during the demolition, evidence comes to light that points to the mysterious disappearance of a young wife and mother years before. With a burned out detective investigating the case, an arsonist on the loose, two men playing with her emotions, and layers upon layers of vintage wallpaper causing havoc, it's a question of who will flip, who will flop, and if Hattie will ever get her happily-ever-after.

Chicktime is a grass-roots movement meant to support and encourage women pursuing their passions with gusto. It is our belief that if each woman on the planet takes her place right now, together we can accomplish the phenomenal. We help passionate women set up Chicktime groups in their areas with the hope of creating a network of chapters across America. Chicktime groups accomplish many things. Here are a few: 1. Connect women to creative and fun opportunities to pursue their passions while serving others; 2. Provide a place for women to serve and play together; 3. Raise awareness for local women and children's charities. The idea is to expose the next generation to a wide array of gifts and talents so that they can look inside themselves and identify their own.
